

Our Speaker

Vicki Kensinger is an ordinary woman who has found that victory and abundant life come only in love from and service to Christ. She served along-side her husband, Bob, in youth ministry for nearly 20 years until Bob became the Sr. Pastor at Christ Evangelical Free Church in Strausstown. In this new role she loves opening their home, teaching and making disciples. She is the co-director and teacher at Circle K Camp, a summer camp focused on reaching “church kids” with a life changing relationship with Christ. She enjoys interior design, gardening and finding a bargain.

Vicki and Bob have 3 children: Kristi, Bob and Nate who are each in their own ways joining in the Camp and Church ministries.

Sessions

Redeemed: From a dumpster dweller to the daughter of the King!

Slipping Toward Bondage to Another: Turning our hearts and desires to pleasing something or someone else.

Breaking Free: How to be who you really are.

Living Free: Baby steps toward lasting change.

Our Missionary Guest

Renee Young comes to the EDA as a missionary with the Urban/Intercultural Mission of the EFCA. She grew up in a single parent home, in poverty, in Minneapolis, MN. Through the ministry of the Sunday School, Renee was ready to “ask Jesus into her heart” at the age of 6, during VBS. During her High School years her Sunday School teachers challenged her – and the rest of the youth group – to pray and read the Bible each day, to grow in faith and in the Lord. Renee took that challenge and grew in her faith by leaps and bounds! She was baptized at age 16 in obedience to Christ and to say to Him, “I’ll go where you want me to go and do what you ask me to do.” Little did she know she’d be called to ministry among people who were now in the same situation that she’d been raised in.

Renee is also a vital part of the BUMP (Bridging Urban Missions Project) ministry of the National Office (EFCA UIM). She is now based in New York City as the National BUMP Coordinator. You’ll find her helping EFCA youth discover their gifts in an urban ministry context, as they run VBS’s and sports camps in major cities around the country. Renee does “the BUMP” in Denver, Baltimore/DC, St. Louis and New York City. She is a graduate of Alliance Theological Seminary in Nyack, NY (C&MA) and has her Certificate of Christian Ministry for ministry in the EFCA.
